

PRESS RELEASE

CHARLES CHURCH 'GREAT BRITISH' EXHIBITION' 10th August 2005

The Arndean Gallery, 23 Cork Street, London, W1 will host an exhibition of 'Great British' oil paintings by Charles Church from 31st October – 5th November.

10% of proceeds from the sale of rare breed paintings will be donated to the Rare Breeds Survival Trust. Paintings on display will feature among others the Suffolk Punch horse, British White bull, Marsh Daisy cockerel and Gloucestershire Old Spots pig.

Charles Church has been disheartened by the demise of British farming and the erosion of our much loved countryside traditions and his paintings reflect themes which celebrate the rich diversity of our rural heritage.
